

QUICK ACTION

Of the Senate in Response to the President's Appeal for

HELP FOR STARVING AMERICANS

In Cuba, but Action Is Blocked in the House

BY THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

Who Demands that an Amendment be Added to It Recognizing Belligerent Rights of the Insurgents—He Interposes a Matter Which Should be Treated Separately—Debate on the Morgan Belligerent Resolution in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—An undertone of Cuban comment pervaded the senate when the session opened to-day. The anticipation of a Cuban message and a Cuban debate drew large crowds to the galleries. Among the senators the Cuban question was uppermost, and the gathered in groups during the early routine business and discussed the outlook. Among the early arrivals were Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who presided at the Cuban mass meeting last night, and Senator Allen, of Nebraska, who made a speech there. The day's calendar showed that the Morgan resolution had secured the parliamentary status of "unfinished business," giving it the right of way at 2 o'clock.

Immediately after the reading of the journal Secretary Pruden, of the white house staff, presented the President's message. It was taken to the clerk's desk and read with the closest attention from senators and spectators. The message was as follows:

The Message.

"To the senate and house of representatives of the United States:

"Official information from our consuls in Cuba establishes the fact that a large number of American citizens in the island are in a state of destitution, suffering for want of food and medicines. This applies particularly to the rural districts of the central and eastern parts.

"The agricultural classes have been forced from their farms into the nearest towns, where they are without work or money.

"The local authorities of the several towns, however kindly disposed, are unable to relieve the needs of their own people and are altogether powerless to help our citizens.

"The latest report of Consul General Lee estimates that nearly a hundred Americans are without means of support. I have assured him that provision would be made at once to relieve them. To that end I recommend that Congress make an appropriation of not less than fifty thousand dollars to be immediately available for us under the direction of the secretary of state.

"It is desirable that a part of the sum which may be appropriated by Congress should, in the discretion of the secretary of state, be used for transportation of American citizens who, desiring to return to the United States, are without the means to do so.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

"Executive Mansion, May 17, 1897.

Following the reading of the message, Mr. Davis, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, favorably reported with amendments the resolution introduced by Mr. Gallinger last Thursday, appropriating $50,000 for the relief of destitute citizens of the United States in Cuba. The resolution was as follows:

Resolved, by the senate and representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that the sum of $50,000 be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the relief of destitute citizens of the United States in the island of Cuba, said money to be expended at the discretion and under the direction of the President of the United States, in the purchase and furnishing of food, clothing and medicines to such citizens and for transporting to the United States such of them as so desire and who are without means to transport themselves.

Immediately Passed.

Mr. Davis asked for immediate consideration of the resolution and there was no objection. The only speech made was that of Mr. Gallinger, who spoke briefly. He said he had been impressed at the great mass meeting, at attended by 3,000 persons yesterday, with the statement made there by a correspondent who had traveled through the stricken district of Cuba.

This gentleman had stated that there was an abundance of food in Cuba and that it was needless to give relief in that direction. The real trouble, he said, was that the Cubans were herded in the towns and prevented from going out to get the food. The most effective relief, Mr. Gallinger said, would be a demand by the President and the government that the Cubans be released from their bondage in the towns and permitted to go where they could secure food. The senator was ready to assume his share of the responsibility for such a step. Still, if the resolution just reported gave some measure of relief he would heartily support it without urging the other plan of relief he had suggested.

The resolution was then put on its passage and without division it passed unanimously, there being no response to the call for the yeas. It had taken exactly eighteen minutes for the reading of the message, the presentation of the committee report and the brief speech and the final passage of the resolution.

Morgan's Belligerent Resolution.

When the Morgan resolution came up Senator Wellington, of Maryland, made a vigorous speech in opposition to it. He said the Republican party had come into power to relieve the people of this country of distress. The first duty of Congress, he said, was not to Crete, not to Cuba, but to the American people.

Sensor Wellington said that as a Republican he wanted to see that the most effectually and heartily approved of the policy of Grover Cleveland in regard to Cuba. Cleveland, he said, was entitled to the thanks of the people because he would not rush this country headlong into war with Spain.

"This resolution is a defiance of Spain," he said. "You may say Spain is a weak power and that we can annihilate her in thirty minutes. Are you ready for war? Do the American people want war? I do not believe it. Until you are ready for war do not take steps which will involve war."

Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, argued for the resolution, saying it voiced the sentiment of the American people who wanted no more of the "Cleveland policy" on Cuba.

Mr. Daniels, of Virginia, replied in sarcastic vein to some of Mr. Wellington's remarks and then read a carefully prepared manuscript involving the legal points in the recognition of belligerency.

Daniel's Points.

After concluding his legal argument, Mr. Daniel branched to the general subject of Cuba and aroused the greatest attention by his vigorous remarks. The diplomacy of Spain had succeeded for two and one-half years, he said, in blinding American diplomacy into the belief that war did not exist in Cuba. But the world knew that war existed there, high-handed, red-handed, bloody and cruel war. It is a war in which Spain employs more troops than England employed in seeking to put down the American revolution. He denied that the recognition of an existing fact could be construed as a hostile act, but in any event the fact should be recognized as the great interest of the United States thrown toward the cause of civilization and Christian usage.

"It is said this means war," continued Mr. Daniel. "I deny it. If Spain should declare war against us because we recognize the belligerency of her former subjects, who had carried on a war for two and a half years against her, she would have an unjust cause for complaint and war against her. I do not wish to see the American people involved in war, as war is one of the greatest calamities that can befall a people. But if a greater calamity for the public spirit of a great nation to be so deadened that it can look upon murder and arson and pillage with indifference, and for the public spirit of that nation to be so dead as to delay one instant in doing an act of justice because of fear of war."

At the close of Mr. Daniel's speech, Mr. Mason, of Illinois, secured the floor, and will speak when the resolution is taken up at 2 o'clock to-morrow. At 5 o'clock an executive session was held and at 5:30 the senate adjourned.

BAILEY DELAYS ACTION.

Democratic Side Willing to Let the Starvation Go on Because they Can't Have Their Own Way.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—No sooner had the journal of the last session been read than Mr. Simpson, (Pop., Kas.), and Wheeler, (Dem., Ala.), shouted objections. Mr. Wheeler was trying to report his constitutional objection raised last week amid the objections of several Republicans when the President's secretary, John C. Pruden, appeared with a large document and announced "a message from the President."

Mr. Wheeler continued to speak, however, while the message lay on the speaker's table.

The speaker ruled in response to objections, that Mr. Wheeler should be heard and that gentleman spoke for fifteen minutes. Most of the Democrats and Republicans voted against approving the journal and Mr. Simpson forced the speaker to count a quorum.

Then the President's message on Cuba was read at half past 12. The members on the floor and the large crowds filling the galleries, listening with profound attention. There was a faint ripple of applause after the reading.

Mr. Holt, former chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, at once introduced a bill for the appropriation of $50,000 for food and transportation for Cubans, substantially the same as the senate bill, though not identical in words.

The consideration of the bill was very brief. Mr. Dingley, the Republican leader, and Mr. Bailey, the Democratic leader, were at once on their feet. Mr. Bailey delivered a long document, "I will not object to consideration," he announced. "If the amendment which I hold can be offered."

"I will have to object to that," Mr. Dingley replied.

"I hope there will be no objection," said Mr. Bailey. "Is there objection?" demanded the speaker.

Object, spoke up Mr. Dingley.

"Objection is made," the speaker announced, "and the gentleman from New York presents a conference report on the Indian appropriation bill."

This passage consumed but a minute. Members crowded about Mr. Bailey and learned that the amendment he proposed to offer embodied Senator Morgan's resolution for the recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans.

The Democrats of the house have formed a plan which may force the house to a vote on the question of recognizing the belligerency of the Cubans. If Mr. Holt's bill for an appropriation of $50,000 for relief of American citizens is called up again Mr. Bailey will offer Senator Morgan's resolution for recognition of belligerency. If, as is reported, the committee on Indian affairs reports a special rule for the consideration of the bill which will prevent amendments as was done with the tariff bill he will present a minority report from the committee on rules which will permit amendments to the bill and will insist on a vote on the minority report. The Republican leaders say that the President's message presents a business question which they do not wish to complicate with the question of recognizing belligerent rights.

THE TAILORS' STRIKE.

Thousands Quit Work in Three Cities. Will Be a Big Struggle.

NEW YORK, May 17.—There was no outward manifestation of excitement yesterday at the headquarters of the striking tailors. William Cohen, business agent of the brotherhood of tailors, of which the strikers are nearly all members, said to-day:

"In this city, Brooklyn and Newark, 10,000 men and women are on strike, 10,000 of them in this city, where 1,000 shops on the East Side are closed. This strike affects the entire clothing manufacturing trade. The reason for it is the failure of the contractors to live up to the agreement they made more than a year ago. About 6,000 persons struck yesterday morning and the others last night and early to-day, when they had finished their tasks.

Cohen said that assistance was expected from the Progressive Tailors' Union No. 11, which will meet to-night, and in all probability order a strike. The union numbers about 2,000 members, who make the better class of ready made garments. Of the strikers, according to Cohen, 15,000 belong to the brotherhood of tailors, 2,500 to the children's jacket makers' union, and about 1,000 to the sailors' jacket union.

MRS. LANGTRY'S DIVORCE

Her Husband Says It Is Not Legal, and She Will Commit Bigamy if She Remarries.

LONDON, May 17.—Edward Langtry is quoted here to-day as saying that the information which he has received of the granting of a decree of divorce to his wife, the actress, Lily Langtry, by a California court, is that which has appeared in the news dispatches. He denies the power of the California court and says:

"Mrs. Langtry cannot re-marry without committing bigamy, and if she does so and comes to England it will be in the power of the public prosecutor to indict her. I, myself, would not contemplate such a thing. He cannot annul the marriage until the woman means. As for the charge of desertion, upon which the decree is said to be based, the only desertion I have been guilty of was in 1881, when I was packed off to America on some business which kept me dodging about Chicago and New York. I have been kind and fair to her all along, commencing with the marriage settlement, which is still good, whereby I will her my property in Ireland."

A BIG BATTLE.

The Turkish Army Attacks the Greeks at Domokos.

DESPERATE FIGHTING ALL DAY.

Report that the Sultan's Troops Were Finally Successful.

ODDS WERE AGAINST GREEKS.

But They Fought Bravely, and Their Cannon Did Fearful Execution Among the Turks—Grecian General Mavromichalis Wounded—Powers Refuse to Consent to Turkey's Terms of Peace—They are Abused and Excessive—Great Excitement in Athens.

ATHENS, May 17.—A dispatch was received this morning from Crown Prince Constantine dated from Domokos at 3:30 this morning, (saying that the Turks, numbering about 50,000 men had appeared in eight, marching on Domokos and that the attack would apparently be directed against the two wings and especially left wing of the Greeks forces.

Another dispatch from the Crown Prince, dated noon to-day stated that the Turks had drawn nearer and were then about four and one half miles distant.

Immediately after the receipt of this dispatch Mr. Ralli, the premier hastened to foreign legations, visiting each in turn.

The Battle Begins.

A dispatch sent from Domokos at noon by way of Lamia says:

Thirty-five thousand Turks, infantry, cavalry and artillery, have attacked the Greek line at several points of the left wing and the centre with a view of penetrating southward and surrounding Domokos. Large forces are also attacking General Smolenski.

During the afternoon a dispatch was received from the crown prince dated Domokos at 2 p. m., saying that at that hour the Greeks were still holding the positions at Domokos.

The Crown Prince was present during the engagement.

The most intense excitement prevails here. All the cabinet ministers have been assembled since noon at the ministry of marine, where the dispatches from the front are being received. The gravity of the situation cannot be overestimated.

Dispatches sent from Domokos at 7 p. m., say that the Greek left wing has fallen back toward the centre before thrice the number of Turks. The battle continued after sunset, but despite the yielding of the left wing, the Turks were finally repulsed. General Mavromichalis was wounded.

The correspondent of the London Times says that the following has been received at Athens from Crown Prince Constantine:

"Our right wing, under Gen. Mastragias, has been compelled to retreat. It holds Ypsala, but may find it necessary to retire on Phouria Pass. It was necessary to bring up all the reserves in order to repulse the furious attacks of the enemy. Our wounded have been sent to Lamia. The conduct of the army was praiseworthy."

55,000 Men Engaged in the Fight.

The London Daily Chronicle's correspondent at Athens sends the following account of the fighting yesterday:

"Over 50,000 Turks simultaneously and continuously attacked our whole line. Our artillery and infantry did splendid work. Twice all the regiments of the enemy wavered and fled, though their attack was soon renewed with fresh force, which in turn we were able to hurl back.

"The stubborn resistance and splendid vigor of our troops finally compelled the enemy to give way altogether. All the attacks on our left were similarly repulsed.

"On our right we did not fare so well. The first attack of the enemy was repulsed, but they massed in immense forces for the next attack. Our first line wavered and was broken and the wing would have been turned but for the timely arrival of the reserves.

"Still the enemy had gained ground, which it was then impossible to regain, and we, therefore, fell back on Boni.

"The Turks had 50,000 troops, with 30,000 reserves. Our force was only 35,000. We lost heavily, but the enemy must have lost thousands."

Latest from the Battle.

LONDON, May 17.—The latest news from the seat of hostilities by way of Athens, shows that the battle yesterday ceased about 9 o'clock in the evening, but will probably be resumed this morning. Thus far no account of the fighting has been received from the Turkish side. It is evident from the Greek account that the Greeks have suffered a serious defeat, and if the left wing has given way, as appears probable, Edhem Pasha may be able to cut off the Greek retreat and separate Gen. Smolenski, from the main army.

It is under Edhem Pasha's command the foolish attempt of Col. Manos to snatch a victory in Epirus. If Greece had prevented Manos from playing this last card of a gambler, Turkey might perhaps have ceased hostilities. As it is now, she is in full possession of Thessaly and the powers will find the task of protecting Greece more difficult than ever.

The dispatches from Athens represent the populace as astounded when the news of the fighting ceased. They hoped to the last that the powers would prevent Turkey from going further. One report represents the Greek government as threatening to take extreme and drastic measures with the officials.

From Another Source.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE GREEK ARMY, DOMOKOS, May 17.—4 p. m.

—The Turkish attack on the Greek right wing began at 2 o'clock this afternoon, but the flank attacks are considered to be feints and it is believed the main attack of the Turks will be made upon the Greek centre, where the Crown Prince Constantine is in command.

Two Greek cannons are doing great execution on the principal Turkish column which is advancing through the hills.

The Turkish infantry at several points is in contact with the Greeks.

It is believed here that the attack on Gen. Smolenski near Almyros is only a strategic operation and that the Turks will endeavor to cut between the two Greek armies, occupy the road leading to the Othry mountains and thus cut off the retreat of the Crown Prince.

Battle of Arts.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 17.—Osman Pasha telegraphs from Loures, Epirus, saying that after a desperate battle near Arta on Saturday the Greeks retired to Arta with the loss of 3,000 men killed. The Turks had 540 men killed and 700 wounded.

SULTAN'S DEMAND

Will Not be Granted by the Powers—It is Regarded as Excessive.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 17.—All the powers have agreed to protest against the cessation of Thessaly to Turkey and the abolition of the capitols. LONDON, May 17.—The conditions proposed by the ports as the terms of peace with Greece have been freely discussed in the lobbies of parliament to-day, and the idea of the retrocession of Thessaly and of such an indemnity as is already suggested is ridiculed as impracticable and absurd. On the outside, an indemnity of £2,000,000 or £3,000,000 and a slight strategic rectification of frontier are considered as likely to be the terms finally settled upon.

Russian Press on Turkey's Demand.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 17.—The newspapers of this city vigorously protest against the "excessive and unacceptable" conditions which Turkey demands as the price of peace with Greece. They declare that if Turkey insists upon them Europe will be obliged to abandon mediation.

The Novoe Vremya says that in the event of Turkey's insistence upon the terms which have presented the powers will have to take practical measures to "preserve Greece from the pretensions which threaten her national existence."

TWO STATE SENATES

In the Kentucky Legislature—A Peculiar Situation, that Body.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 17.—This state witnessed the spectacle this morning of two separate bodies sitting in session in the same hall, and each claiming to be the senate of Kentucky. The fight over the Stephenson fusion bill was renewed and the advocates of the bill were confident of its passage. The silver Democrats insisted that Lieutenant Governor Worthington vacate the chair pending an appeal from one of his decisions by Senator Bronston, the question of "indicating" members who are present but refuse to vote. Governor Worthington, backed by the Republicans and gold Democrats refused to vacate the chair.

Sensor Goble, the president pro tem, who was presiding, pending the appeal from Worthington's decision, demanded his right to the chair. The president refused to recognize him, and lifting a chair over the clerk's head, Goble took his seat beside the clerk and the two bodies were in session, amid the wildest tension Senator Bronston, of the silver side, and Governor Worthington, of the Worthington side. The Worthington senate adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon, and the Goble senate, which while in the minority, is backed by the clerks and all the other officials, adjourned until five minutes before 3 o'clock.

CHAPMAN IN JAIL.

The Reconciliant Witness Begins His Sentence.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Elverton R. Chapman, the recalcitrant sugar trust witness, who refused to answer a senate committee questions as to whether he had acted as a broker for any senators in speculating in sugar trust, occupies a cell at the District jail to-night and will continue there twenty-five days. Chapman surrendered himself to United States Marshal Wilson at 4 o'clock today in accordance with an understanding previously reached. He was very cheerful and inclined to be sociable in his confinement. He said he felt no anxiety whatever save as to the loss of his daily "constitutional," for he is an enthusiastic pedestrian. Two cells have been assigned him, one for sleeping purposes and the other as a sitting and office room.
